Step on it, Doc!

B. The following excerpt is adapted from Harry Truman's address before a joint session of Congress on 12 March 1947

- I believe that it must be the policy of the United States to support free peoples who are resisting attempted subjugation by armed minorities or by outside pressures. I believe that we must assist free peoples to work out their own destinies in their own way. I believe that our help should be primarily through economic and financial aid which is essential to economic stability and orderly political processes.
- The seeds of totalitarian regimes are nurtured by misery and want. They spread and grow in the evil soil of poverty and strife. They reach their full growth when the hope of a people for a better life has died. We must keep that hope alive.

Step It Up Doc

1. Refer to Source A. What is the cartoonist's view about the role of the Soviet Union in western Europe? Support your answer with one clue from Source A.
 - Cartoonist's view about the role of the USSR:
The USSR was trouble-maker / source of chaos.
 - Clue:
The eagle labeled "communism" (representing the USSR) was bringing the evil-looking child labeled "chaos" and flying to western Europe at high speed.

2. What does the vulture in source A represent?
Why is it presented this way?

The vulture represents communism and the Soviet Union. It is presented that way because vultures feed on dead & dying animals. Communists tried to appeal to societies that were dying from economic problems.

3. Refer to Source B. Would Harry Truman agree with the view of the cartoonist? Explain your answer with reference to Sources A&B and using your own knowledge.

- Harry Truman's view: AGREE with the cartoonist's view
- Harry Truman mentioned that there were people in Europe “who are resisting attempted subjugation by armed minorities or by outside pressures” (Source B). This corresponds to the possible threat of “chaos” being brought by the eagle to western Europe (Source A).
- Harry Truman pointed out that the US policy was to “assist free peoples to work out their own destinies” and to provide “economic and financial aid” (Source B). This corresponds to the doctor (representing the US Congress) rushing to western Europe to forestall “chaos” (Source A).
