Aim: Why did people immigrate to the United States during the 19th century?

Do Now: Why do people (families) move from one place to another?

- Immigrate: come to live permanently in a foreign country.
- Emigrate -leave one's own country in order to settle permanently in another.
- Migration the movement of individuals from one place to another

The Populist Party

Omaha Platform – 1892

- Farmers
  - Government ownership of RRs
  - Coinage of silver
- Workers
  - 8 hr day
  - Limits on immigration
- Taxation
  - Graduated income tax
  - Reduce tariff rates
- Government
  - Secret ballot
  - Direct election of senators

IMMIGRATION

PUSH FACTORS

 conditions which force people to leave their homes

PULL FACTORS

 something that attracts people to go and live in a particular place

OLD IMMIGRATION

- Northern and Western Europe
- Irish and Germans

NEW IMMIGRATION

- Eastern and Southern Europe
- Poles, Russians, Ukrainians, Hungarians Italians, Greeks, Turks

Immigration, "Old and New"

Old Immigration – Primarily from Northern and Western Europe (before 1890s)

New Immigration – Primarily from Southern and Eastern Europe (1890s to early 1920s)

Immigration to the United States, 1870–1920

